

Company Overview

Established in 1990, Diego Delivery has become a trusted provider of white glove delivery services across San Diego. With over 30 years of experience, we specialize in offering customized logistics, secure warehousing, and high-quality delivery services. Our commitment to excellence is reflected in our team of trained professionals, our 20,000 sq ft warehouse, and our partnerships with renowned organizations like the American Society of Interior Designers.

Our services are tailored to meet the unique needs of interior designers, commercial offices, and individual customers. Whether it's delicate furniture delivery, full moving services, or secure storage solutions, we ensure every item is handled with the utmost care.

Management Team

Diego Delivery is led by Rushabh Shah, who has owned the company since 2021. His visionary leadership has driven the company's success, expanding our services and modernizing our operations.

Our operations are managed by Rex Seem, Operations Manager, who ensures that every delivery is executed with precision, professionalism, and a focus on exceeding client expectations.
